"KINGDOM-FOCUS AND DISCIPLE-STRONG"

"I have other sheep that are not of this sheep pen. I must bring them also. They too will listen to my voice and there shall be one flock and one shepherd". John 10:16

On June 17, 2021, President Joe Biden signed the Juneteenth National Independence Day Act, which officially made Juneteenth a federal holiday. The last African American holiday approved was Martin Luther King Jr. Day by President Ronald Reagan in 1983.

Juneteenth is also recognized as Freedom Day, Second Independence Day, and Emancipation Day because it commemorates General Order 3 issued by Major General Gordon Granger, who arrived in Galveston, Texas, on June 19, 1865 declaring the emancipation of all slaves. The Apostle Paul reminds us in Galatians 5:13, "For you have been called to live in freedom, my brothers and sisters. But don't use your freedom to satisfy your sinful nature. Instead, use your freedom to serve one another in love." (NLT)

God's grace liberated us from the Law in order that we accept Jesus Christ's sacrifice on the cross. We're not only free through our Lord and Savior, but God created all human beings, regardless of their nationality, culture or religion to be free. As we celebrate our emancipation, we should never forget our divine purpose as disciples of Jesus Christ. We are called by God to not only live in freedom but to also become disciple-strong by demonstrating unconditional love for one another. Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. declared it best,

"In the process of gaining our rightful place, we must not be guilty of wrongful deeds. Let us not seek to satisfy our thirst for freedom by drinking from the cup of bitterness and hatred. We must forever conduct our struggle on the high plane of dignity and discipline."

God's Word transforms us into Kingdom-focused believers. Our attention is placed upon the Kingdom mandate Jesus proclaimed in John 10:16 "And other sheep I have which are not of this fold; them also I must bring, and they will hear My voice; and there will be one flock and one shepherd." Most of the COVID-19 Pandemic is behind us but Jesus Christ has provided us the opportunity to take the Gospel of Jesus Christ to people outside of our community of faith.

Facebook, Instagram and YouTube virtual platforms have become more than a stream that is keeping us spiritually nourished. God is using our ministry as a vibrant voice of love to people that may never become members of our church. What a wonderful way to celebrate our freedom and to illustrate by example the love of Jesus Christ to one another, our community and the world.

SAVE THESE DATES

Leader Development

Church Sign Language Interpreting Academy July 10, 10 a.m. to noon

The Zoom session will have three tracks: introduction to church interpreting; interpreting Scripture; and introduction to sign language. Register.

Conference Trustees introduce new revenue-generating oppor- tunities for BWC churches

Covid-19 has been particularly hard on local church finances. In response to the fiscal realities brought on by the pandemic, the Conference Trustees are encouraged to introduce local churches to the ATP Network (www.answertoprayer.net), a company that has brought together many groups that can provide revenue-generating opportunities for local churches.

The ATP Network is pleased to introduce their new partners, REEF Technology (www.reeftechnology.com) to the Baltimore-Washington Conference, and to make available some unique offerings that can generate revenues by taking advantage of unused parking lot capacity for extended lease.

Whether it is their extremely popular Neighborhood Kitchens, Urban Farming, Amazon Lockers or EV Charging Stations, REEF has a broad ecosystem of applications that could potentially be a fit for your church in urban, suburban, and rural locations.

If you would like to see if your church qualifies for any of the current applications (or to be considered for future applications), simply click on this dedicated church portal link and tell them a little bit about your location and vision for your church and its ministries: Church calc - REEF Technology. There is no obligation and if there is a match, you will be contacted to see what is possible.

CLASSIFIED THE BALTIMORE-WASHINGTON CONFERENCE IS HIRING

The Accessibility and Inclusivity Program Coordinator will support the BWC's diversity and inclusion goals and be the Conference's advocate for ensuring churches are practicing inclusion, diversity, equity, and antiracism (IDEA). To apply for this position, send a resume and cover letter outlining how you meet the position's specific requirements to ftagoeb@bwcumc.org by July 30.

ROCK survey for Youth and Leaders

With the affiliation of the BWC with the Peninsula-Delaware (Pen-Del) conference beginning Sept. 1, the youth who attend ROCK will now join the Pen-Del youth rally on Jan. 7-9, 2022 in Ocean City. Planners are asking everyone involved in youth ministry to complete this survey. Your input will help tremendously as plans are made.

Leadership and Family Systems Theory

BeADisciple.com is offering an online course led by the Rev. Jack Shitama on The Non-Anxious Leader: Family Systems Basics, from June 30 to July 27. The course is a deep dive into family systems theory with recorded presentations and three live, one-hour sessions (also recorded). Everything can be done asynchronously. The cost is $198. This summer, the BWC will enter into a contract with Camp Pecometh in Centreville, Md., to expand the scope of the Center so that Shitama can strategically grow leaders – lay, clergy, and young people – in both the BWC and Pen-Del conference.

2021 ANNUAL CONFERENCE

The 237th session of the Baltimore- Washington Conference will be held Monday – Wednesday, Oct. 25-27, 2021

The session is scheduled to be held at the Hilton Hotel in Baltimore. However, if coronavirus-related precautions are necessary to privilege human life, portions of the conference may be held online. Flexibility will be paramount in the planning of this meeting to ensure the safety of all members and visitors.

The theme of this year's session is "We are Still One: Standing, Transforming, Rising." A PreConference Briefing will be held online Saturday, Sept. 25, from 9 a.m. to noon.

A Proclamation on Juneteenth Day of

Observance 2021

JUNETEENTH FLAG

On June 19, 1865 — nearly nine decades after our Nation’s founding, and more than 2 years after President Lincoln signed the Emancipation Proclamation — enslaved Americans in Galveston, Texas, finally received word that they were free from bondage. As those who were formerly enslaved were recognized for the first time as citizens, Black Americans came to commemorate Juneteenth with celebrations across the country, building new lives and a new tradition that we honor today. In its celebration of freedom, Juneteenth is a day that should be recognized by all Americans. And that is why I am proud to have consecrated Juneteenth as our newest national holiday. Juneteenth is a day of profound weight and power.

A day in which we remember the moral stain and terrible toll of slavery on our country — what I’ve long called America’s original sin. A long legacy of systemic racism, inequality, and inhumanity.

But it is a day that also reminds us of our incredible capacity to heal, hope, and emerge from our darkest moments with purpose and resolve.

As I said on the 100th Anniversary of the Tulsa Race Massacre, great nations don’t ignore the most painful chapters of their past. Great nations confront them. We come to terms with them.

On Juneteenth, we recommit ourselves to the work of equity, equality, and justice. And, we celebrate the centuries of struggle, courage, and hope that have brought us to this time of progress and possibility. That work has been led throughout our history by abolitionists and educators, civil rights advocates and lawyers, courageous activists and trade unionists, public officials, and everyday Americans who have helped make real the ideals of our founding documents for all.

- continued -

There is still more work to do. As we emerge from the long, dark winter of the COVID-19 pandemic, for example, racial equity remains at the heart of our efforts to vaccinate the Nation and beat the virus. We must recognize that Black Americans, among other people of color, have shouldered a disproportionate burden of loss — while also carrying us through disproportionately as essential workers and health care providers on the front lines of the crisis.

Psalm 30 proclaims that “weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning.” Juneteenth marks both the long, hard night of slavery and discrimination, and the promise of a brighter morning to come. My Administration is committed to building an economy — and a Nation — that brings everyone along, and finally delivers our Nation’s founding promise to Black Americans. Together, we will lay the roots of real and lasting justice, so that we can become the extraordinary country that was promised to all Americans.

Juneteenth not only commemorates the past. It calls us to action today.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, JOSEPH R. BIDEN JR., President of the United States of America, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and the laws of the United States, do hereby proclaim June 19, 2021, as Juneteenth Day of Observance. I call upon the people of the United States to acknowledge and celebrate the end of the Civil War and the emancipation of Black Americans, and commit together to eradicate systemic racism that still undermines our founding ideals and collective prosperity.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand this eighteenth day of June, in the year of our Lord two thousand twenty-one, and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred and forty-fifth.

JOSEPH R. BIDEN JR.

July 4, 1776, as a day that represents the Declaration of Independence and the birth of the United States of America as an independent nation. ... Or the date it was signed (that was August 2, 1776).

Malcolm X summed up the meaning of the Fourth of July for many African Americans when he said, "That's not a chip on my shoulder. That's your foot on my neck". He said that in 1965 and given the horrendous death of George Floyd in 2020 it takes on an event more poignant meaning.

FREDERICK DOUGLASS said "that the fathers of the nation were great statesmen, and that the values expressed in the Declaration of Independence were "saving principles", and the "ringbolt of your nations destiny", stating, "stand by those principles, be true to them on all occasions, in all places, against all foes, and at whatever cost." However, he maintained that slaves owed nothing to and had no positive feelings towards the founding of the United States. He faulted America for utter hypocrisy and betrayal of those values in maintaining the institution of slavery.

What have I, or those I represent, to do with your national independence? Are the great principles of political freedom and of natural justice, embodied in that Declaration of Independence, extended to us?...What, to the American slave, is your 4th of July? I answer; a day that reveals to him, more than all other days in the year, the gross injustice and cruelty to which he is the constant victim.

Douglass also stresses the view that slaves and free Americans are equal in nature. He expresses his belief in the speech that he and other slaves are fighting the same fight in terms of wishing to be free that the ancestors of the white people he is addressing, fought seventy years earlier. They were statesmen, patriots, and heroes, and...with them, justice, liberty, and humanity were final; not slavery and oppression.

Douglass also says that if the residents of America believe that slaves are "men", they should be treated as such. True Christians, according to Douglass, should not stand idly by while the rights and liberty of others are stripped away.

Douglass denounces the churches for betraying their own biblical and Christian values. He is outraged by the lack of responsibility and indifference towards slavery that many sects have taken around the nation. He says that, if anything, many churches actually stand behind slavery and support the continued existence of the institution. Douglass equates this to being worse than many other things that are banned, in particular, books and plays that are banned for infidelity.

GLORY

*Sung by Common and John Legend
Written by John Roger Stephens and Lonnie Rashid Lynn*

One day when the glory comes
It will be ours, it will be ours
Oh one day when the war is won
We will be sure, we will be sure
Oh glory (Glory, glory)
Oh (Glory, glory)

Hands to the Heavens, no man, no weapon
Formed against, yes glory is destined
Every day women and men become legends
Sins that go against our skin become blessings
The movement is a rhythm to us
Freedom is like religion to us
Justice is juxtapositionin' us
Justice for all just ain't specific enough
One son died, his spirit is revisitin' us
Truant livin' livin' in us, resistance is us
That's why Rosa sat on the bus
That's why we walk through Ferguson with our hands
up

When it go down we woman and man up
They say, "Stay down", and we stand up
Shots, we on the ground, the camera panned up
King pointed to the mountain top and we ran up

One day when the glory comes
It will be ours, it will be ours
Oh one day when the war is won
We will be sure, we will be sure
Oh glory (Glory, glory)
Oh (Glory, glory)

Now the war is not over, victory isn't won
And we'll fight on to the finish, then when it's all done
We'll cry glory, oh glory (Glory, glory)
Oh (Glory, glory)
We'll cry glory, oh glory (Glory, glory)
Oh (Glory, glory)

Selma's now for every man, woman and child
Even Jesus got his crown in front of a crowd
They marched with the torch, we gon' run with it now
Never look back, we done gone hundreds of miles
From dark roads he rose, to become a hero
Facin' the league of justice, his power was the people
Enemy is lethal, a king became regal
Saw the face of Jim Crow under a bald eagle
The biggest weapon is to stay peaceful
We sing, our music is the cuts that we bleed through
Somewhere in the dream we had an epiphany
Now we right the wrongs in history
No one can win the war individually
It takes the wisdom of the elders and young people's energy
Welcome to the story we call victory
The comin' of the Lord, my eyes have seen the glory

One day when the glory comes
It will be ours, it will be ours
Oh one day when the war is won
We will be sure, we will be sure
Oh glory (Glory, glory)
Oh (Glory, glory)
Oh glory (Glory, glory)
Hey (Glory, glory)

When the war is won, when it's all said and done
We'll cry glory

(Glory, glory)
